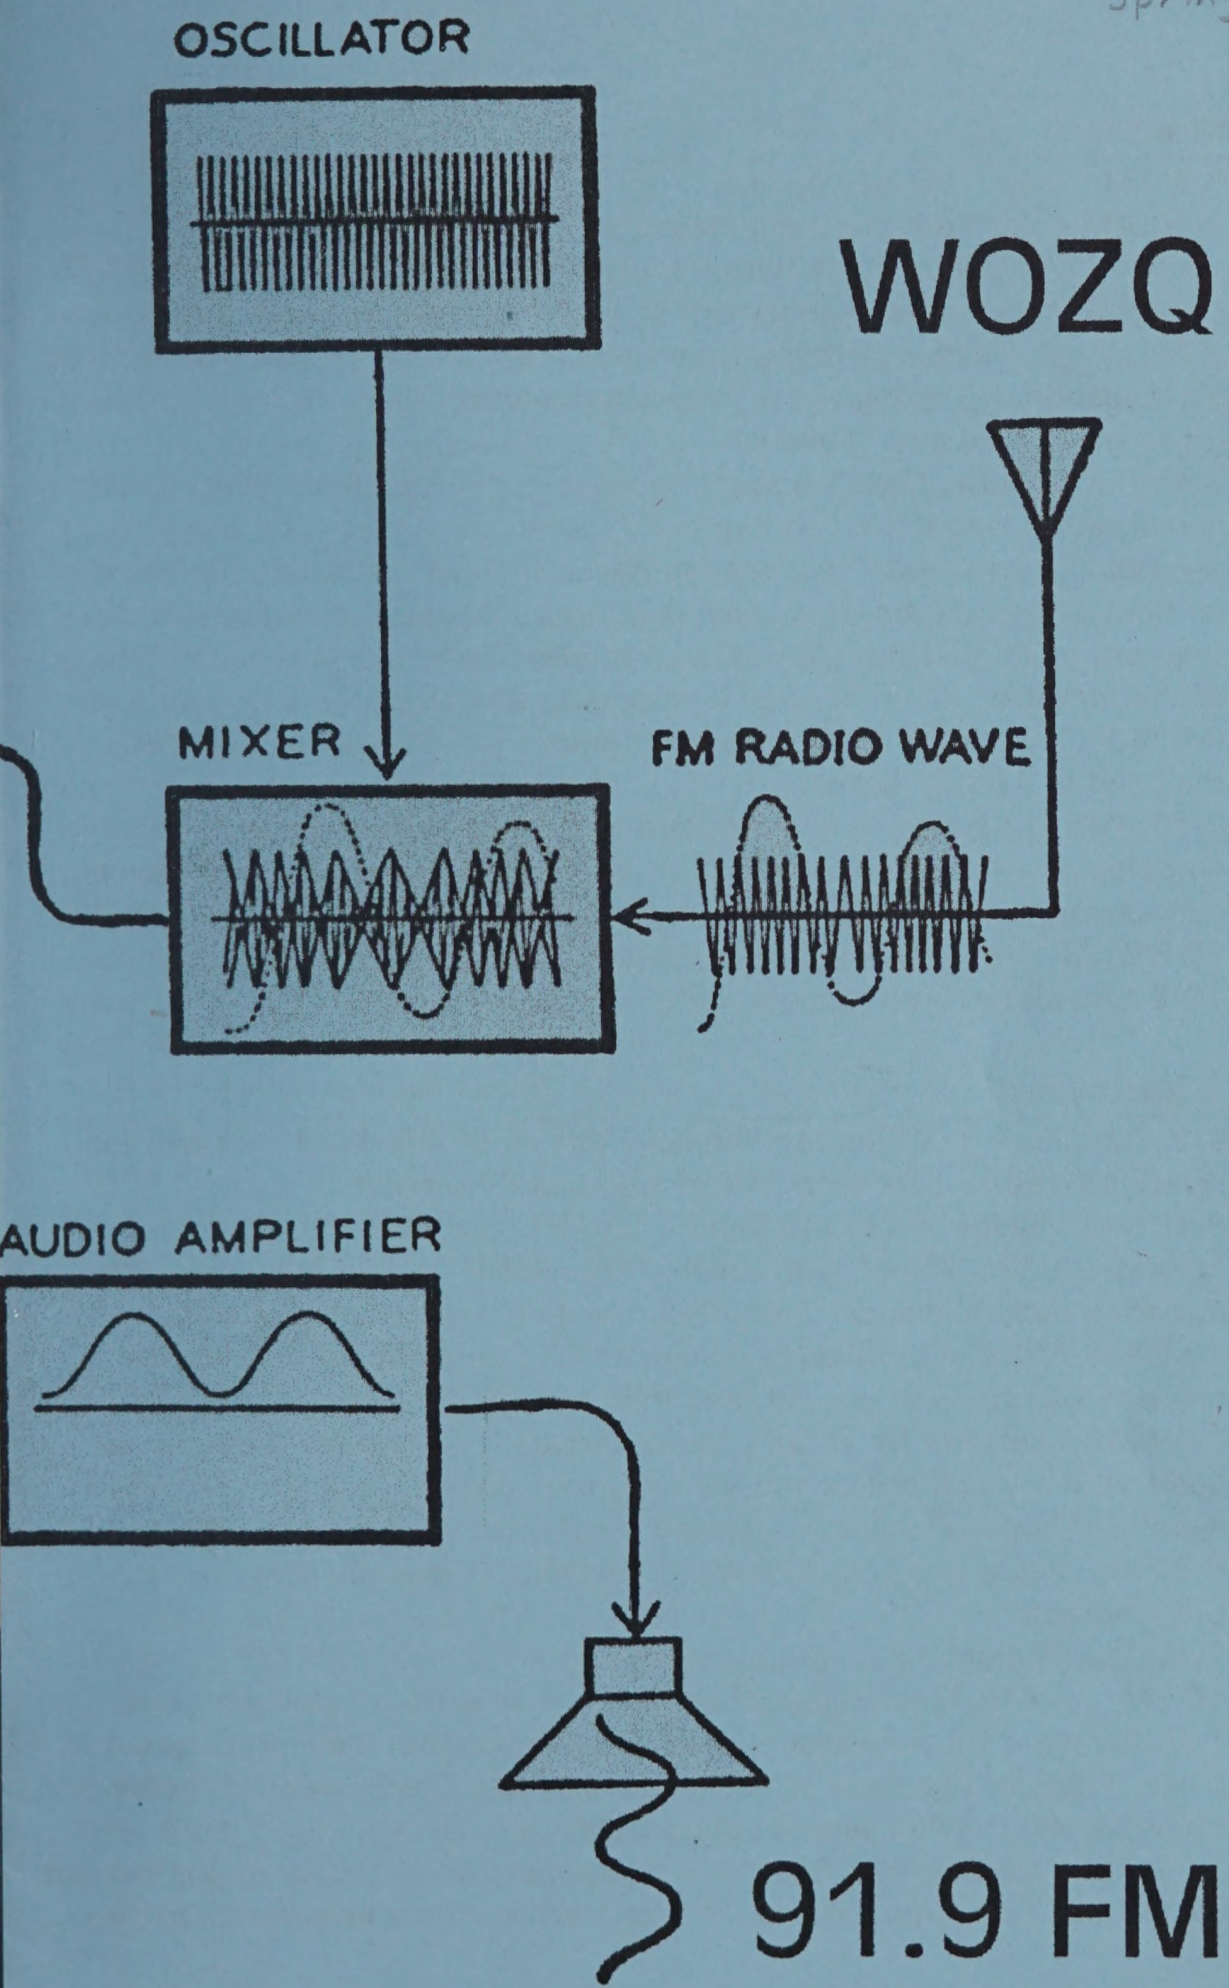
Spring 1999



Monday

6-8 AM: "Flop" Songs you like.
8-10 AM: "For Your Listening Pleasure"
10 AM-12 PM: Indie Rock with Rachel.
12-2 PM: "Applecore" I know that sometimes applecores are just thrown away, but my dad eats them. Its always really gross, but he says it helps his digestion. So as my show is during the lunch hour, think of it as a gross way to aid your digestion.
2-4 PM: "Ill in the Head" A sporting venture into the dank, dark world of underground (and not-so-underground) punk.
4-6 PM: "Brown Glass" A material that solidifies from the molten state without crystallization; it is considered to be a supercooled liquid rather than a true solid. Listen in as DJ Little Miss Tamar plays tunes in honor of the forgotten luster of such a wondrous substance.
6-8 PM: "Left of the Dial" Indie rock/ emopop from Land of the Loops to the Land of 10,000 Lakes.
8-10 PM: "If I Had a Hi-fi" with Sara and Anne. "The sphere's turned on,/ Hoping to charm our ears/ With sufficient organ-music, sadly sent out/ On the wrong wave of sound; but still they roll."
10 PM- 12 AM: Indie Rock with Christa.
12-2 AM: Urban with Mandy.

Tuesday

6-8 AM: "From the Suburbs" An eclectic mix of indie rock, riot girl, and semi-mainstream acts with a nice suburban Ohio twist.
8-10 AM: "Beige" From the Smiths to the Sugarcubes.
10 AM-12 PM: "Aden" with Sarah. An eclectic techno-folk-punk '80s mix for a radio audience committed to subverting male radio land.
12-2 PM: "Yes, We Have No Bananas" Two hours of fun-filled new releases and some of our old favorites.
2-4 PM: "I Left My Heart On Ludlow Street" Indie pop for the nerdy at heart with a touch of ska and 60's girl rock operas.
4-6 PM: "This is Our Music" hosted by Alyssa G. The best indie.
6-8 PM: "Puffy and Your Mother..." Because everybody has a secret Siamese twin.
8-10 PM: "Round 13"
10 PM- 12 AM: Therine and Alissa are..."Yours Truly" Join us every Tuesday night for a frolicking foray into the world of indie pop, rock and punk. From Lois to Rose Melberg, Cadallaca to Cat Power, we'll play our favorites and they'll become yours, truly.
12-2 AM: "Co-Co's Hot Spot" It'll be a reflection of Ladies' Night (on Hot 97 of New York City). Hence, it'll be a show where only ladies will be guests or callers who'll get on the air, although we will play music of both genders.

Wednesday

6-8 AM: "Luminescent Flux" Vibes for your e-spot, mind, body, soul.
8-10 AM: "Getting Your Groove On... w/ Deena!" Tune in as Deena plays the best of today's indie and alternative rock. She will also play plenty of classic punk and indie tunes!!!
10 AM-12 PM: "Hong Kong Creamery" with Kim. Independent Rock that's good for your bones.
12-2 PM: "Still Outta Range" The continuation of a great show, so great you could sometimes even catch the waves. So if you're looking for some chick tunes to put that special beat in your day—tune in. Maybe this time you won't be outta range.
2-4 PM: "Pizza for Sex" Two fun-filled hours of the best pop your money can't buy.
4-6 PM: "Kissing Just for Practice" Spreading love, joy, and indie rock to the masses.
6-8 PM: "Calling Over Time" with Allison. An amalgamation of the underground pop scene: indie, shoegaze, and Britpop, always with a healthy dose of the new, the rare, and the classic.
8-10 PM: DJ Kat and DJ Frankie
10 PM- 12 AM: "Urban Roots" Showing you what's out there expanding the limits of HipHop and also taking you back to where it all began... 'Damn it's me once again on your stereo/ Here we go, it's like another show with a four track of vengeance;/ Tape crusaders, Lyrical Benders, Innovators, Walkman Invaders, Motivators...' (BFAP/MJ). Beats, Lyrics, Funk, Soul, Fresh...
12-2 AM: "Strictly for the True Heads" with DJ Politic. Underground, independent hardcore real shiyat. Peace.

Thursday

6-8 AM: "Soda-Pop Punk" with Bryn and Alissa. Punk from bubbly new groups to the backwash of the 80's.
8-10 AM: Indie Rock with Rebecca.
10 AM-12 PM: "Sterling Silver Sporks of Sound" with Anna Bartenstein. General programming with an emphasis on women's music, contemporary folk, and general oddities.
12-2 PM: "The Fundamentals of Glamour" Punk rock that's been sweetened, lipglossed, crystalized. Energy is for dancing, or crying and you can do both, all in the black and white space of and old movie or a chapbook of poems.

Friday

6-8 AM: "Music for the Year of the Camel-Hair Coat" Songs to make you spit out your gum.
8-10 AM: "Tunes that Make Ya' Head Nod" Basic blend of tunes which mood depends on time of day.
10 AM-12 PM: "Green Jello" Expect an eclectic mix that will tingle your ears and stretch your musical horizons—everything from Tricky to Bob Dylan, from Outkast to R.E.M. There's a lot of good stuff there and I aim to play it all.
12-2 PM: Mary Katherine and Rachael: Still no catchy DJ names.
2-4 PM: "Anne's Upbeat Indie Show" Or mostly upbeat, that is. Mostly new releases, everything good. This is the two hours you've been waiting for! Listen in. You love it!
4-6 PM: "On the Scene" Groovy 'mad for it' tunes from across the pond. Please use responsibly as selections may include Ocean Colour Scene, Belle and Sebastian, and Mercury Rev.
6-8 PM: "Die Reeperbahn-Express" Two chicks in severe alternative withdrawal after spending the year in the pop-laden land of Europe... We'll throw some of the super pop in with the most groovin' and geil new releases and wicked awesome 'OZQ music!
8-10 PM: "The Raw Deal" with Kim & Katrina.
10 PM- 12 AM: "Nocturnal Wonderland" with DJ Metronome & DJ APOLLO. Kickin' out the big phatty beats for your listening pleasure.
12-2 AM: "Urban Revolutions" What is our show like, you ask? Why, it's like a T-bone: we only offer the choicest cuts! Mostly hip-hop, but also a smattering of reggae, r&b and jungle..

Saturday

6-8 AM "Catch the Worm with Lauren" A wonderful assortment of blues and jazz from the old school stylings of Duke Ellington and Ella Fitzgerald to the newer, funkier music by musicians like Medeski, Martin and Wook and Jonny Lang. For a relaxing start to your Saturday mornings, tune in.

8-10 AM: "A Rude Awakening" Goth/ metal/ industrial with a twist.
10 AM-12 PM: "Mesogeios" Music in a different language, closer to your own than you think. Alternative sounds, songs from different epochs and genres all coming from the country with the thousand islands.
12-2 PM: "Eye on Smith" Current events and controversy in the Smith community.
2-4 PM: "Sonic Fruits" Traditional and contemporary sounds from around the world—some tasty flavors for your ears.
